Comms Group secures A$2.4M contract with leading global SaaS provider

Highlights:

- Comms Group has been awarded a major contract in partnership with Vodafone to provide IP based voice services to a leading global SaaS provider.
- Initial contract will deliver over A$2.4M in revenue from upfront and ongoing service fees over a 3-year minimum term, with additional revenue to come from usage-based charges.

Comms Group Limited (ASX:CCG) (“Comms Group” or the “Company”), a leading provider of cloud communications, collaboration and modern workplace solutions, is pleased to announce the award of a major contract in partnership with Vodafone Business, the business division of Vodafone Group PLC (“Vodafone”), to provide IP based voice services for a major global SaaS provider.

Comms Group’s Global division will earn at least A$2.4M in revenue for the provision of IP based voice services for approximately 7,000 users over the minimum 3-year term, with additional revenue to come from usage-based charges.

Comms Group will shortly commence delivery to the global customer as part of our strategic partnership with Vodafone, whereby Comms Group is providing a range of unified communications services and enhanced global country coverage, as outlined in recent ASX announcements^{1,2}.

Mr Peter McGrath, Group CEO and Managing Director of Comms Group, commented:

"We are thrilled to embark on this exciting new initiative with Vodafone, a highly strategic partner of Comms Group’s global division. This key contract win is a testament to our dedication to expanding and improving access to full-service voice and unified communications services globally. We look forward to delivering outstanding service and further strengthening our relationship with Vodafone in the coming years. It also signals the beginning of future opportunities within this product portfolio, as we continue to develop and deliver on key opportunities in the sales pipeline. We expect further contract wins in the short-to-medium term, which will continue to develop Comms Group’s position in the market."

Comms Group’s growth strategy within the Global business includes the provision of multi-country unified communications as a service (UCaaS) solutions to multi-national corporations, along with the latest generation of products, which are provided over a reliable global network and supported by high levels of technical expertise with 24/7 support.
