Former GG Sir Peter Cosgrove leads APT cruises

Former Australian Governor-general and 2001 Australian of the Year, Sir Peter Cosgrove will be a special guest and host on select APT Luxury Travel Kimberley and Northern Europe & Arctic expedition cruises next year.

While onboard, Sir Peter will conduct a series of hosted dinners as well as present several lectures. Drawing on his extensive military and vice-regal experience he will discuss various topics including the World War I and II history of World War I and II as well as provide his unique insights on the world of and geopolitics.

Guests can join Sir Peter as they cruise some of the world's most far-flung locales including Greenland's Ittoqqortoormiit, one of the most remote settlements on earth.

Alternatively, for those hopping to explore warmer climes, Sir Peter will accompany guests on a Kimberley Coastal Expedition Cruise where they can explore Montgomery Reef by Zodiac and experience the natural wonder of King George Falls.

Applicable departures:

- GKKCD10 - Kimberley Coastal Expedition - 18 June 2025
- EUSSCLR11 - Iceland, Faroe Islands and Scotland – 3 July 2025
- EUSSCRR14 - Iceland and Arctic Explorer – 13 July 2025
- Combo: EUSSCLR24 - Iceland, Scotland & Arctic Explorer - 3 July 2025

Guests on these extraordinary expeditions will board Seabourn's ultra-luxurious small ships, the Seabourn Pursuit and the Seabourn Venture. These vessels boast exceptional dining experiences, a dedicated 24-person expedition team and an array of relaxation and wellness spaces. Zodiacs will whisk guests to access off-the-beaten-path locations such as the dramatic cliffs of Iceland and the ancient waterways of the Kimberley. With a maximum of 264 guests and all-veranda, all ocean-front suites, there is no better way to travel through Northern Europe or along the Kimberley Coast.
